Hockey Tour to Barcelona

During the first week of the October half term, 73 Queenswood hockey players embarked on their tour to Barcelona. Pupils had the opportunity to learn from some of the best hockey coaches around, while also facing up against some tough local opposition. There was, of course, plenty of time for some sightseeing, shopping and sunbathing in between!

House Performing Arts Competition 2022: And the Winners Are...

On Wednesday 2 November the whole school gathered to watch performances from the House Performing Arts Competition. This event marked the culmination of weeks of casting, choreography, costume-making, rehearsal and design work and filming, all overseen by students themselves. You can view the performances, and the adjudication by West End star Melissa Rose, by clicking on the hyperlink above.

State of the Art: Scholars' Mural Designs for Bellman

Over the past few months, Queenswood Art Scholars and Principal's Award holders have been working on designs for a mural to adorn the new outdoor seating area opposite Bellman Sixth Form Centre. The winning design, as selected by Mrs Cameron and the Senior Leadership Team, was by Charlotte P (Year 11).

Lucie B's D of E Adventure in the Brecon Beacons

The first week of August was the start of a memorable challenge for Lucie B (Year 11), as she undertook her Silver Duke of Edinburgh Open Expedition on horseback in the Brecon Beacons. Click on the link above to read about her adventure.

Meet Queenswood's Latest Elite Sportswomen

This week, Zina, Willow, Holly and Gigi were each awarded the coveted Queenswood Elite Sportswoman badge, in recognition of their national rankings in individual sports. We would like to congratulate all four pupils on their fantastic achievements and commend them for their determination and hard work.
